Filipino Charges
Tissue of Lies

Washington, July 25.—The letter received by Senator Dingle from one of Aguinaldo's generals, I Al-mendra, containing an alleged account of an interview between the leader and Admiral Dewey on board the Olympia April 1898, in which it is said Admiral Dewey promised independence to the Filipinos, was shown to the Admiral today by an Associated Press representative. The Admiral characterized it as a "tissue of falsehoods" and declared it absurd on its face. "I not only had no power to promise independence to the Filipinos," said he, "but the whole tenor of the words put in my mouth stamps them as false. I am made to say things which I never thought of, and which I could never have uttered. You will notice that I am referred to in an interview as Admiral whereas I was only a Commodore. Several Filipinos came aboard the Olympia at Hongkong. They were anxious to be taken back to Manila.

"I considered their representations of little importance," said the Admiral, "and did not take them to Manila.
Later I gave permission to Aguinaldo and about a dozen others to come to Manila. They were anxious to see an end of Spanish tyranny, against which they had been fighting. After the destruction of Montez's fleet the city virtually surrendered and I was satisfied that if we had 5000 troops there at that time, we could have gone ashore and been received by the Filipinos as deliverers. They had absolutely no thought then of independence. That was an afterthought of their leaders during the interim between the smashing of the Spanish fleet and the arrival of the United States troops."

Speaking of the report that Cuba was to be evacuated by the American troops after the holding of the constitutional convention, Admiral Dewey said he did not see how the United States could turn the islands over to the Cubans until a stable government had been established.

"We are responsible to the world for the government of Cuba," he said, "and until such a government has been set up we cannot withdraw. The world looks to us, and no matter which political party wins in November, the United States cannot relinquish the island until a responsible and stable government is set up there."
